Come and Sing at Kew

Join a new adult community choir at Royal Botanic Gardens Kew, and perform at the re-opening of the Temperate House in May 2018.

The choir will be run by well-known choir master, singing teacher and performer Sam Evans, who believes passionately that everyone can sing.

The choir is open to all adult residents of Hammersmith and Fulham, Ealing, Hounslow and Richmond, regardless of experience and is free to attend.

Join one of our informal taster sessions to find out more. Regular rehearsals will take place on Wednesday evenings from the 7 February 2018.
